Therefore, please disclose any past or present relationships with the parties which may create a conflict of interest, direct or indirect, whether financial, professional, social, or of any other kind. Any doubts should be resolved in favor of disclosure. A panelist's disclosure obligation shall continue throughout the course of the panel proceedings and will require the panelist to disclose, at any stage of the panel proceedings, any such interest or relationship that may arise, or that is recalled or discovered. Disclosure should be made to the President of the Association. Failure to make timely disclosure may result in your suspension from this panel. Your Disclosure will be held confidential by NAEGA.

Please respond in writing to this confidential communication with all conflicts related to the referenced panel. However, the President of NAEGA who acts to administer the process and select the panel reserves the right to limit, to the best of his ability, any conflicts that might bring into question the impartiality of the panel.
